LEHIGH CATTLE POWDER, to purify the blood and cleanse the system, thereby prevent and cure diseases in Cattle, Sheep, Swine and Poultry.

DUVOY'S HORSE AND MULE POWDER, for all diseases of the blood, muscles and the nervous system, and to save the 37 to 50 per cent. of food lost as undigested in the ordinary way of feeding.

FARMERS' UNION CATTLE POWDER, in 12½ lb. bags, for dairy use, to increase quantity and quality of milk, fat, butter and flesh, and to give nature such ingredients as it needs to yield the largest profits.

UNION ROACH, RAT, MICE AND ANT EXTERMINATOR, sure death to all vermin, and will not change by age or climate.

JAPANESE CORN CURE, the great remedy for corns and bunions.

GAMBRINUS PULVER, has no equal in curing diseases of the LIVER, LUNGS, STOMACH, BLOOD, KIDNEYS and NERVOUS SYSTEM.

HIRNER'S DAIRY BOOK ON PRACTICAL FARMING shows you how to make from $75 to $100 profit on each Cow annually. Furnished free everywhere.

GOLD MEDALS received at PARIS, 1867; at VIENNA, 1873; at PHILADELPHIA, 1876; at HAMBURG, 1877; also, 197 STATE and COUNTY PREMIUMS since 1856.

The quietest influence on the excited nervous system, or heated blood, which the "GAMBRINUS PULVER" imparts, as well as its curative power in biliousness, headache, dyspepsia and female complaints, and the tone it gives to the system, makes it the most valuable Family Medicine.

Some of the best people of Allentown certify that the "JAPANESE CORN CURE" does cure corns and bunions. See Circulars.

DADDOW & BEADLE'S

MINERS' SAFETY SQUIBS

FOR BLASTING IN MINES AND QUARRIES.

These Squibs and Fuses are covered by caveat filed in U. S. Patent Office, September 6, 1870, and by several subsequent patents. In regard to economy of time, material and reliability in operation, they are acknowledged to be over 100 per cent. cheaper than anything of the kind hitherto made; and in several cases, old and experienced miners who were formerly prejudiced against patent squibs, have declared that these squibs have been the means of saving them as high as $ to $10 per month, and we are willing to believe their statements, because in wet and difficult places, or where much blasting is required, the loss of a few holes, or considerable time in making squibs, with imperfect materials in the mines, are serious drawbacks to the miners.

But to miners as well as operators, the saving of life, and the great reduction in the ratio of accidents from blasting, where our squibs are used, are the most important results of these introductions. In addition, however, we may state that the complaints of "poor powder" are far less frequent where these squibs are used, while one of the most delicate and difficult items in the part of blasting in our mines has been removed and the danger of gas explosions has been decreased. It is our intention to make and sell nothing but safe and reliable articles, to protect ourselves and the miners from the danger of imperfect squibs or irresponsible parties.

*Every infringement on these Patents will be prosecuted according to law, and makers and dealers in such will be held responsible.

INCREDULITY! INVESTIGATION!

IS it not incomprehensible that when a man comes into a city, and, in a public manner, declares he is the possessor of new methods of curing disease, more simple and less expensive than ever before known, and brings with him numerous testimonials of his success in sister cities, and also brings references of his integrity and ability from the highest authorities, and has pamphlets full of such certificates and references to give to any mortal afflicted with any complaint, and has undisputable proof that persons rapidly recover health under his system, I ask is it not inexplicable why persons in easy reach of such valuable information will not take the trouble to investigate the matter, and, if true, regain their health? Over 400 persons have died in Dauphin County in seven months who were so faithless as not to examine these statements, notwithstanding no death as yet occurred in this city of any patients under my charge, and over 200 have died after drugging their bodies, 200 undertakers have been employed, 200 coffins used, 200 funerals, when I am prepared to prove that the most of them were premature deaths, and that the body is like a watch, kept in order or ruined according to the treatment. Over six columns of cures printed. One well-known lady of Middletown dying on the 21st of October; alive and well and called upon me December 16th. Mrs. Henry Bleyer, of Highspire, said in my office, December 16th, I can see better to-day than for twenty-six years, and my dyspepsia and rheumatism all gone. George Weigger, well known in Steelton, said to me, December 18th, I have doctored for seven years with some of the best physicians in Steelton and this city, paid out over $300, only to throw my money away; you have nearly cured me in six weeks; malaria and other diseases are gone, and I have not yet paid you $10. Examinations all free. CATARRH cured for 50 cents. My cure quick, for CATARRH sent, post paid anywhere on receipt of 50 cents in stamps.

HENSINGER'S HOTEL

Railroad, cor: Main, near Depot, Alburtis, Lehigh Co., Pa.

D. D. HENSINGER, - Proprietor.

—Also, Agent for American and Red Star Steamship Lines.—

ALLENTOWN, Lehigh County.

Is on the East Pennsylvania Branch of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, the Lehigh Valley and the Lehigh and Susquehanna Railroads. The Lehigh Coal Company's canal passes through the town. It is 59 miles from Philadelphia, 36 miles from Reading, and contains a population of about 20,000. The city is situated at the confluence of the Lehigh River with the Little Lehigh and Jordan Creek and is built upon an eminence in the midst of a very picturesque region. The Jordan runs through the northern part of the town. The eminence upon which the town is built commands an unusually beautiful prospect, sloping gradually to the river on the east, and to the creek on the north. It was laid out in 1762, and to-day presents a very substantial appearance. The streets run at right angles, and are broad and clean, adorned with shade trees and well lighted with gas. Street railway cars run from the depots to the principal parts of the city.

Allentown has many advantages as a manufacturing town. Its situation in the midst of a rich agricultural district; its nearness to valuable beds of iron ore, zinc, limestone, cement, &c.; its railroad and canal accommodations, and the peculiarly favorable sites for manufactories, all point to the cause of its present rapid growth and future prosperity. It contains numerous large rolling mills, furnaces, fire brick works, boiler shops, foundries and machine shops, steam forges, spike and brass works, woolen mills, silk mills, planing mills, carriage and wagon factories, mowing machine works, sash factories, and other branches of manufacture. In addition to all this there is a very large wholesale and retail business done at the various stores. There are two national and one savings bank. The public buildings are among the finest in the State; the numerous public school buildings are large and commodious and stand unrivalled by any similar structures of the largest cities. There are three colleges located here. There are eleven papers published in this city. Allentown contains churches of twenty-two congregations, embracing a large number of sects.

The hotel accommodation of the city is first class, and the Allen House, under the proprietorship of T. H. Good, has a wide spread reputation. Among the business houses of the city that we would specially commend for excellence of wares are the following: C. G. Hirner, manufacturer of the Lehigh Cattle Powder, which has a national reputation; and E. J. Lumley, manufacture of soap and candles.

CATAWISSA, Columbia County,

A borough of about 2,000 inhabitants, is situated on the North Branch of the Susquehanna River, at the junction of the Catawissa Creek, and is on the Catawissa Branch of the P. & R. R. R., the Lackawanna & Bloomsburg R. R., the Sunbury, Hazleton and Wilkes-Barre R. R. and the North and West Branch R. R., one hundred and forty-five miles north of Philadelphia, and fifty-four miles south of Williamsport. The shipping facilities are very superior, which fact is worthy the attention of manufacturers. It was settled about 1790, and contains six churches, a graded school, a bank, two hotels, flour mills, a paper mill, a planing mill, a foundry and an excellent newspaper, The Catawissa News Item. The P. & R. R. R. also have their machine shops located here.

COLUMBIA, Lancaster County,

Is situated on the left bank of the Susquehanna river, on the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, eighty-one miles from Philadelphia, seventy two from Baltimore, thirty from Harrisburg, and is the western terminus of the Reading & Columbia Branch of the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad, forty five miles from Reading. Columbia was settled in 1726, and the town laid out in 1787 by Samuel Wright. In 1814 it was incorporated as a borough. There are good churches, the best of schools, several newspapers, steam engine and marbleized mantel works, and the various other branches of industry well represented. It is the principal depot of the lumber which is annually rafted down the Susquehanna river. Population about 9,000.

DANVILLE, Montour County,

A borough of about 10,000 inhabitants, is situated on the North Branch of the Susquehanna River, and on the line of the Catawissa Branch of the P. & R. R. R., the Lack'a and Bloomsburg and the Danville, Hazleton and Wilkes Barre Railroads—forty-four and half miles from Williamsport, sixty-nine miles from Harrisburg and 154½ miles from Philadelphia. The borough is the centre of one of the best iron mining districts in the State, and, having first class facilities for transportation, has numerous large blast furnaces, rolling mills, foundries, &c. It contains two banks, one daily and four weekly newspapers, two insurance companies, several good hotels. It is supplied with both water and gas. A State hospital for the insane is located here.

EPHRATA, Lancaster County,

Is located on the line of the Reading and Columbia Railroad, 19½ miles from Reading and 22 from Lancaster. The first white inhabitant was a hermit by the name of Elimlech. Shortly after 1715 Conrad Biessel, to escape religious persecution, retired to this place. Many who coincided with him in his religious opinions settled around him, and from this community has grown the village of Ephrata. The first place of worship was erected about 1723, and is still standing. The early history of Ephrata is remarkably interesting. Water was introduced in 1878. There is one foundry, flour and bark mills, one nursery, one newspaper, several good hotels, fine stores, coal, slate and brick yards, &c. Population about 1,000.

HARRISBURG, Dauphin County.

The first white settlement at this place, the site of an Indian village called Peixtan, Pextang, or Paxton, was made about 1719, by an Englishman named John Harris, who, in 1733, obtained from the proprietaries of Pennsylvania a grant of three hundred acres of land near his residence, and purchased of other grantees five hundred acres adjoining.

In 1753 the Penns granted to his son, John Harris, jr., the right to establish a ferry across the Susquehanna at this point, and the place was long known as Harris' Ferry. Early in 1785 the town was laid out by William Maclay, son-in-law of John Harris, and it became the seat of justice of the new county taken from Lancaster and called Dauphin, after the French crown prince. The town also received in honor, of Louis XVI., the name of Louisburg, which is retained until 1791, when it was changed to Harrisburg in honor of its memorable founder, John Harris. In the same year it was incorporated as a borough. In 1812 the seat of government was removed from Lancaster to Harrisburg. In 1860 it was incorporated as a city.

Harrisburg, the capital of Pennsylvania and of Dauphin county, is beautifully situated on the left bank of the Susquehanna river, one hundred and fifty miles from its mouth. It is surrounded by magnificent scenery and fertile land; and time has demonstrated that the location is a remarkably healthy one. The city is supplied with water from the Susquehanna river. The county court house was erected in 1785. The county prison in 1841. Gas was introduced in 1850. The State insane asylum, north of the city, was first opened in 1851, and will accommodate three hundred patients comfortably.

The capitol, finely situated on an eminence near the heart of the city, was occupied for the first time January 28, 1822.

The State Arsenal, is situated in a grove near the new reservoir, east of the city limits.

The National Government has erected a new post office and revenue building, which contributes largely to the public convenience.

The City Hospital, corner of Front and Mulberry, is a tangible evidence of the humane and benevolent disposition of its citizens. It was dedicated early in 1873.

Harrisburg is situated on the Main Line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, 106 miles from Philadelphia, and 248 from Pittsburgh; 59 miles from Auburn, on the Schuylkill and Susquehanna Railroad; 74 miles from Hagerstown, on the Cumberland Valley Railroad; 85 miles from Baltimore on the Northern Central Railway; and 54 miles from Reading on the Lebanon Valley Railroad. Its great railroad facilities for travel and freight, together with the Susquehanna river passing on the west, and the Pennsylvania Canal running through it on the east, and the vicinity of the city to large beds of coal and iron ore, give it an almost unequalled position for trade and manufactures of every description. It has three enterprising daily, and a number of weekly newspapers, several banks, many fine church edifices, excellent school buildings, and numerous fine private residences. There are also extensive furnaces, foundries, rolling mills, machine shops, car works, breweries, flour mills, saw and planing mills, cotton mills, and establishments for the manufacture of glue, carriages, boilers, nails, hardware, brick, burr millstones, leather belting, hose, files, rasps, tiles, brooms, furniture, etc., etc.

In newspapers, the Harrisburg Telegraph, published by the Harrisburg Publishing Company, the Patriot, published by the Patriot Publishing Company, Daily Independent, published by E. Z. Wallower, are the three leading daily papers. They are highly respectable and influential journals, and are conducted with very marked ability.

Attention is likewise directed to the Harrisburg Car Company's lumber mills, which, under the efficient management of Mr. J. E. Carmany, are constantly turning out an immense quantity of lumber of every description for their numerous customers.

The old-established planing mills of W. K. Cowden continue to carry on a thriving business. The proprietor is so well and favorably known that any extended notice here would seem unnecessary.

The Chesapeake Nail Works of Charles L. Bailey & Co. have established an excellent reputation for their productions, as an ever increasing demand amply testifies.

Among others we must not forget the popular brewer, Mr. Henry Fink.

Persons in want of watches, jewelry, or silverware can always find a complete stock from which to select at the establishment of C. A. Aughinbaugh. The drugs and medicines purchased from D. W. Gross & Son can always be relied upon as being pure and fresh.

But it were vain to attempt to speak of all the enterprising, deserving business men of the place engaged in all the departments of trade and industry. The entire city is a hive of industry, a community of 35,000 souls.

HUMMELSTOWN, Dauphin County,

Is a town of about 1,000 inhabitants, situated on the Lebanon Valley Branch of the P. & R. R. R. It is nine miles from Harrisburg, and forty-five miles from Reading. Its growth was very slow until the building of the railroad. Echo Cave in the immediate vicinity is quite a natural curiosity, and is well worthy a visit. It contains a planing mill and lumber yard operated by W. H. Siple, a brown stone works, several coach manufactories, hotels, &c. It was incorporated as a borough in 1874.

MANUFACTURERS AND BUILDERS OF

Patent Hydraulic, Steam, Belt and Hand-Power Passenger and Freight

ELEVATORS

Hoisting Machinery, Dumb Waiters, Automatic Hatch Doors, &c.

Sole Owners of the Right to apply the HEEBNER PATENT GOVERNOR to Elevator and Hoisting Machinery.

The Pneumatic Safety Clutch

Is the Quickest in Action and Most Reliable Safety Device in use

As this Safety Clutch is operated by the resistance of the air being forced away from beneath the car, it does not depend solely upon the cable breaking—as is the case with most safety appliances—but the breaking of a belt, or any part of the machinery that would increase the descent of the car beyond its normal speed, causes it to arrest the fall, thus making it the most reliable Safety Clutch now in use.

And control other patents which combine to make our Automatic Hatch Doors the most perfect working doors now built.

LANCASTER, Lancaster County,

Is situated on the Pennsylvania Railroad, 69 miles from Philadelphia, 37 miles from Harrisburg, 12 miles from Columbia, via the Pennsylvania Railroad, and 42 miles from Reading, on the Reading and Columbia Branch of the P. & R. R. This branch extends to Quarryville, distant from Lancaster $15\frac{1}{4}$ miles, and is known as the Lancaster and Quarryville Branch of the P. & R. R. R. Lancaster was founded about 1718, and for some years was called Hickory Town. On the organization of the county, in 1729, it took its present name, and became the county seat. In 1742 it was chartered as a borough, and incorporated as a city in 1818. In 1777 Congress sat here for a few days, in the building now used as the postoffice, situated at corner of Penn square and West King street. A street railway connects Lancaster with Millersville, distant 4 miles. The present population of the city is about 28,000. The church and school facilities are unsurpassed, and the manufacturing interests are extensive and varied, consisting of cotton mills, woolen mills, dyeing establishments, organ factory, watch factory, large foundry and machine shops, breweries, lock works, hub, spoke, and felloe works, cigar box factories, rifle and edge tool works, sash and door factories, planing mills, soap and glue works, tanneries, brick yards, bolt and boiler works, carriage factories, etc.

Prominent among the agricultural interests is the culture of tobacco. For the purpose of packing and shipping the leaf, large warehouses are erected in all parts of the city.

Lancaster supports four daily, eleven weekly, and ten monthly newspapers. From 1799 to 1812 it was the Capitol of the State, and from 1750 to 1825 was the largest inland city in the United States.

A GREAT INTEREST

—Is being Taken by our Best Citizens in—

A NEW BOND NOW IN THE MARKET.

As these bonds are sold on instalments, they are within the reach of all who have a little surplus money to lay aside for a time when their circumstances may not be so prosperous. The United States Bonds can be owned only by the rich; or, at least, by those who can, not only pay cash all down for them, but pay a large bonus above their face; while these bonds can be purchased for less per annum than the legal interest on their face. They are better than Government bonds for several reasons:

1st—In case of the death of the bond-holder all the unpaid instalments are cancelled and the bonds fall due and are paid in full, even though but one instalment may have been paid, thus doing away with the necessity of a Life Insurance Policy.

2d—Should the bond-holder for any reason wish to discontinue paying the instalments, the money paid will be refunded, with compound interest, less the actual cost to carry the risk.

They are not only better than United States bonds in the above named particulars, but they are far superior to savings banks, for in case of death the banks will give only the amount paid, with the interest, while the owner of these bonds would receive as much as if he had lived and paid for twenty years.

These bonds are issued by the National of Vermont, incorporated in 1848, and has double the surplus of assets to liabilities of any other old purely mutual life insurance company in the world. Any information desired may be had by addressing

LEBANON,

The county town of Lebanon county, has a population of about 10,000, and is on the Lebanon Valley Branch of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, 25½ miles from Harrisburg, and 28½ from Reading. The Lebanon and Tremont Railroad also connects here with the Lebanon Valley. It was laid out in the year 1750 by George Steitz, after whom the town was called Steitztown, until the formation of Lebanon county in 1813 when the name was changed to Lebanon. Its progress until the completion of the railroad was slow, but from that time manufacturing establishments sprung up on all sides. The county abounds in rich deposits of iron ore and lime stone, the Cornwall Iron Mountain, a few miles from Lebanon, being composed of almost pure iron. There are numerous large furnaces in and around Lebanon, the Lebanon Furnace being the largest, which manufactures an immense amount of pig iron. It also contains foundries and machine shops, boiler works, an organ manufactory, 3 planing mills, agricultural implement works, 4 banks, 12 churches, 2 daily and several weekly newspapers, a number of fine hotels, and has both water and gas works.

Lebanon takes a high rank as an insurance town. having among its home companies the Valley Mutual Fire Insurance Company, which is well known to be strictly reliable.

LITITZ, Lancaster County,

Is situated on the line of the Reading and Columbia Railroad twenty seven miles from Reading, sixteen from Columbia, and by rail fifteen miles from Lancaster. It was settled in 1742 by two Germans by the names of Jacob Huber and George Klein, the latter of whom, being a convert to the Moravian faith, donated his entire farm of 500 acres to the church. The first place of worship was erected in 1749, and the town laid out by the church in 1756. The history of Lititz and its institutions is remarkably interesting and well worthy of perusal. The famous Lititz spring is located here. It has but one fountain and is one of the largest springs in the United States. Lititz has one bank, planing mill, coach works, flour mill, two newspapers, three hotels, good schools and fine churches. The soil is productive, scenery grand and location remarkably healthy. Population about 1,100.

MAHANoy PLANE, Schuylkill County,

A thriving village on the Mahanoy & Shamokin Branch of the P. & R. R. R., seventeen miles from Tamaqua and twenty-six miles from Shamokin. The Shamokin Branch also terminates here. It is a coal town of some importance, and derives its name from the inclined plane of the P. & R. R. R. Co., by which cars are hoisted over the mountain, making connection at Frackville.

MANHEIM, Lancaster County.

Is situated on the Reading and Columbia Railroad, thirty-two miles from Reading, and thirteen and a half from Columbia. The first white settlement, of which there is any authentic account, was made in 1760 or 1761, by an old German, by the name of Baron Wilhelm Heinrich Stiegel. In 1762 Manheim contained but three houses, the first of which, on South Prussian street below Ferdinand, is still standing. The industrial interests are well represented. There is one bank, six churches, fine school building, planing mill, two flour mills, one foundry, and one enterprising newspaper. The town is surrounded by a remarkably fertile agricultural district. Population about 1,900.

NORRISTOWN,

The county seat of Montgomery county, on the north bank of the Schuylkill river, and the western terminus of the Germantown and Norristown Branch of the P. & R. R. R., is connected to Bridgeport on the Main Line of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, seventeen miles from Philadelphia, by a large and substantial bridge across the Schuylkill. It has a population of about 14,000, and contains seven newspapers, among which the Daily Herald, Daily Times and Daily Register take rank with any daily papers published in cities of equal size in the State; eighteen churches, three banks and numerous manufacturing establishments, among others cotton and wool mills, coal oil refineries, foundries and machine works, extensive glass works, flour mills, carriage works, planing mill, soap and candle works, tack works, &c. The education of the youth of the city is well provided for by the excellent public schools, which deserve special mention, a seminary and several academies. It has several excellent hotels, none of which surpass in comfort and courteous attention to guests the Farmers' and Mechanics', of which Frank S. Moyer is proprietor; public hall and the court house and jail, which are elegant buildings and reflect great credit on the enterprise of the citizens of the county. A State Hospital for the insane is located here.

ORWIGSBURG, Schuylkill County,

Is a flourishing borough of about 900 inhabitants, located in Manheim township, eight miles east of Pottsville, and is reached by the Main Line of the P. & R. R. R. to Landingville, thence by stage three miles north. It was settled in 1795, by Peter Orwig. In 1811, when Schuylkill County was erected out of Berks County, it was settled as the county seat and was removed to Pottsville in 1849, and the old court house is now used as a shoe factory. The town supports three churches, one graded school, and two hotels, the principal one of which, the Arcadian Hotel, is managed by Mr. Irwin F. Hoy, a courteous and accommodating landlord. The principal industry of the town is the manufacture of shoes.

PHOENIXVILLE, Chester County,

Is on the Main Line of the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad, 27½ miles from Philadelphia and 65½ miles from Pottsville, and is the terminus of the Pickering Valley Branch of the P. & R. R. R. It lies on the west bank of the Schuylkill river at its confluence with French creek, and is surrounded by rich lands and beautiful scenery. It is a manufacturing town of no small importance, containing about 7,000 inhabitants, and has extensive furnaces, rolling mills, pottery, copper furnaces, the largest iron bridge works in the country, planing mill, flour mills, &c. It has also a gas company, three weekly newspapers, large public and select schools, nine churches, two banks, two large public halls, market house, public park, library, building associations, &c. There are two passenger stations, affording convenient access to all parts of the borough. The water works are on an extensive scale, the basin being situated on an eminence 190 feet above the river, affording a splendid view of the river and country round. and sufficiently high to force the water far above the highest houses, affording ample protection from fire.

PINE GROVE, Schuylkill County,

Is situated at the base of the Blue Mountain, on the line of the Schuylkill and Susquehanna Branch of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, 41 miles from Harrisburg, 18 miles from Auburn, where it connects with the Main Line, 28 miles from Pottsville. Pine Grove was settled about the year 1771 and incorporated as a borough May 7, 1832. The leading feature among the business interests of Pine Grove is the mining and shipping of coal, it being the principal shipping depot of the western section of the great Anthracite Coal Basin. The hotel accommodations of Pine Grove are excellent, the Pine Grove Hotel, under the able management of Samuel P. Filbert, being especially worthy of mention. The present population of Pine Grove is about 900.

POTTSVILLE,

The county seat of Schuylkill County, is located at the northern terminus of the Main Line of the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad, 39 miles from Philadelphia. It is, via the Schuylkill & Susquehanna Branch, 69 miles from Harrisburg. The Mill Creek & Mt. Carbon and Mountain Link & Schuylkill Valley Branches also terminate here. It is $17\frac{1}{2}$ miles from Tamaqua and $118\frac{1}{2}$ miles from Williamsport. The People's Street Railway connects it with Minersville, 4 miles distant. It is situated in a valley at the junction of the Norwegian Creek with the Schuylkill River, and is surrounded on all sides by towering mountains. The scenery is not excelled by any in this section of the State. About the year 1975, Lewis Reese and Isaac Thomas, settled north of the "Schneid Berg," Sharp Mountain, in what was called the Schuylkill Gap, where they purchased land and erected a small furnace, which they carried on till 1806, when they sold it to John Pott, who, in the following year, tore it down and erected the Greenwood Forge and Furnace. The growth, other than the natural increase of this section, was slow, until 1816, when Pottsville was laid out by John Pott. About this time there were quite a number of coal veins discovered in the immediate vicinity of Pottsville, but a lack of transportation, difficulty in overcoming the prejudices of the Philadelphia people, to whom coal was first sent for trial, &c., prevented for some time the profitable mining of it. From 1824 the growth of the town was unprecedentedly rapid, for in 1825 we hear of the erection of rows of buildings, stores and hotels, a reading room, establishment of the Miners'

Journal, &c. From that time until now it steadily continued to increase, and has at present a population of 15,000. It was incorporated as borough in 1828, and in 1850 the county seat was removed here from Orwigsburg. The court house and jail, which are large and commodious buildings, situated on an eminence overlooking the town, having been then contracted for and finished. It is the business centre of the Anthracite Coal Region, and its location on the different railroads gives it great advantages as a manufacturing town. There are located here extensive rolling mills, large furnaces, several capacious foundries and machine works, planing mills, soap factories, carriage manufactories, three breweries, a Diamond Drill Manufacturing Co., marble works, together with pottery, spike and bolt, flour and feed, brush, boiler, and other manufacturing establishments. There are also two English and two German weekly, and two daily newspapers, banks, insurance companies, a business college, gas, water, electric light companies, and a street railway running through the principal portions of the town. The repair and car works of the P. & R. R. R. are located in Palo Alto, a suburban town, and an immense amount of work is done in them. The town is very favorably located as a business place, and contains mercantile houses that rival those of Philadelphia and New York.

Among the prominent industries of the place is the machine works of F. B. Bannan, whose noiseless steam engines and direct radiation steam apparatus are winning their way, through their superiority, to the very front rank. D. A. Smith and George F. Eckenrode, the fashionable merchant tailors and clothiers, are always alive to the times, securing all the latest styles and fabrics upon their appearance in New York and Philadelphia markets. The Eagle Brewery of D. G. Yuengling & Son, whose establishment must be seen in order to conceive an idea of its capacity, receive orders for ale, beer and porter, for which they are justly celebrated, from all quarters of the country. The Pennsylvania Diamond Drill Company has its works located here, and an inspection of the specimen cores at its office will convince the most skeptical of the superiority of this method of prospecting for coal, ores, &c. Parties in want of flour, feed, grain or hay, would further their own interests by visiting the warehouse of R. Whitfield, whose facilities are second to none, and who sells as low as the market affords. The Laflin & Rand Powder Co., of which the urbane agent, Mr. James Muir, is always ready to supply all grades of sporting and mining powder in any quantity however great. Among the many attractions to the visitor or in fact to the denizen is the picturesque scenery by which it is surrounded, affording delightful drives which the handsome equipages from the liveries of J. A. Guldin and M. P. Walker render increased pleasure.

The Miners' Journal Printing Establishment, is one of the largest in the State, and having facilities for turning out all descriptions of work. Connected with the establishment is a Book Bindery. The Weekly Journal, now in its 58th year of publication, is the acknowledged authority on all matters pertaining to the Anthracite Coal Trade, and circulates wherever coal is used both in this and foreign countries. The Daily Journal rivals any of the Philadelphia dailies, in telegraphic, local and other news, and the editorial department is second to none, while its circulation is immense.

The Evening Chronicle, a bright, newsy afternoon paper, is published by the Standard Publishing Co., who also issue the Pottsville Weekly Standard, the recognized Democratic organ of the county. Equipped with every convenience, this establishment is turning out first-class work from its book and job printing and book binding departments.

READING.

The county seat of Berks County, is situated on the east bank of the Schuylkill River, in one of the most fertile sections of the State, and being the centre of a number of railroads and but a short distance from large deposits of iron ore, lime stone, and coal, possesses unusual facilities for manufacturing establishments of all descriptions, and these advantages being so apparent, have made Reading one of the most progressive cities in the country, its growth for the last quarter of a century having been almost incredible. It is on the Main Line of the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad, fifty eight miles from Philadelphia, and thirty-five miles from Pottsville; the Lebanon Valley, fifty-four miles from Harrisburg; East Pennsylvania, thirty-six miles from Allentown, and the Reading & Columbia, forty-five and a half miles from Columbia, branches of the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad. The Wilmington & Northern Railroad terminates here, Wilmington being seventy-two miles distant, and it is also the terminus of the Reading & Lehigh Railroad, and is forty-three miles from Slatington. The Schuylkill Canal also passes the city.

As early as 1733 John and Samuel Finney took out warrants, and in 1748 four hundred and fifty acres of land were surveyed with their sanctions, and what is now Reading was laid out by Thomas and Richard Penn. It was incorporated as a borough in 1783, and as a city in 1847. The original settlers were Germans from Wurtemberg and the Palatinate, though the Friends were largely represented and administered the government. The first house of worship was erected by the Friends in 1750 and was of logs. In 1766 it was torn down and built on Washington street, below 5th, where it remained till some ten years ago, when it was torn down and the present stone structure erected. Like most primitive towns of the State, Reading is indebted for its name to the native country of the Penns, it being named after Reading, in Berkshire, England. In 1750 Reading had only one house, but two years later, when the people of Readingtown petitioned the General Assembly to erect a separate county out of the counties of Philadelphia, Chester and Lancaster, it contained one hundred and thirty dwelling houses, besides forty one stables and other out-houses, and there were one hundred and six families, consisting of three hundred and seventy-eight persons. Their petition was granted, and March 11, 1752, the County of Berks was erected. In 1769 it was estimated that Reading contained 1,200 inhabitants, and since which time the increase has been steady and rapid, for the census of 1810 gives a population of 3,462; that of 1820, 4,273; 1830, 5,631; and in 1840, 8,832; but upon the census being taken in 1850 it showed that Reading had nearly doubled itself, there being at the time 15,743 inhabitants within its limits. It has increased in the same ratio ever since, for in 1860 the census gave a population of 23,161, that of 1870, 33,930, the census taken by Boyd's Directory Corps in 1873 shows a population of 38,148, while that of 1880 places the population 43,278, and it is now not less than 45,000.

Reading is regularly laid out and has wide and level streets, and many elegant public and private buildings, the new depot of Philadelphia & Reading Railroad being specially prominent from its size and beautiful proportions. Two street railway companies run their lines through the principal thoroughfares of the city, and a fire alarm telegraph, one of the first in the State, together with an unusually efficient fire department, effectually provide for the extinguishment of conflagrations. It has a full supply of both gas and water. There are in the city manufacturing establishments of almost all kinds, those of iron in its different forms, however, predominating, there being blast furnaces, rolling mills, sheet and boiler plate iron mills, nail mills, foundries and machine shops, hardware manufacturers, stove works, iron pipe works, bolt and nut works, boiler works, &c. The principal shops and the rolling mills of the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad are located here, and they employ a great number of men in the manufacture of railroad iron, locomotive engines, passenger, freight, coal and other cars, &c. There are also large fire brick and terra cotta works, boat builders, brass founders, brick manufacturers, car builders, carriage factories, metallic cornice makers, furniture manufacturers, planing mills, wool hat manufacturers, tanneries, paint manufacturers, agricultural implement works, refrigerator manufacturers, and many others.

It contains churches of almost all denominations, some of them being splendid specimens of architecture. There are a number of spacious market houses, the markets being second to none, and reflect great credit upon the city and county for their cleanliness, variety and quality of the different edibles displayed in them.

There are also two large and beautiful opera houses, a number of first class hotels, wholesale and retail mercantile establishments of immense proportions, and in fact almost every branch of business found in the largest city is represented here, making Reading, what the most casual observer cannot fail to see, one of the most flourishing cities in the country. The grounds of the Berks County Agricultural Society are located on an eminence in the eastern part of the city, and the annual fairs of the society are held in the autumn of each year; they are visited by immense throngs of people from all sections of the country.

The Charles Evans Cemetery, in the northwestern part of the city, adorned with costly monuments, beautiful shrubbery and trees, was founded by Charles Evans, who, in 1846, conveyed to a board of trustees twenty-five acres of ground, and at different times sums of money, amounting in the aggregate, with the cost of the land, to $84,000, "a benefaction to a single object of public utility so great as to have been exceeded but in few instances, it is believed, in Pennsylvania." Since the death of Mr. Evans the area of the grounds has been increased by the purchase of twenty-eight acres adjoining, making it at once, with an imposing Gothic gateway, a towering chapel and beautiful residence for the superintendent, one of the largest and most universally admired "cities of the dead."

Where so many enterprising firms are engaged in their different pursuits it is difficult to discriminate, but we cannot allow this opportunity to pass without saying a passing word for a few of those that have done so much to bring Reading up to its present status.

Prominent among these is the firm of Orr, Painter & Co., manufacturers of stoves, heaters, ranges, hollow ware, &c., which is composed of practical mechanics, who devote their entire attention to the production of first class wares, and being alive to the interests of their patrons, are continually turning out new and useful designs, which for beauty and utility are surpassed by none and equaled by few of their competitors.

The citizens of Reading need not leave their own city in quest of factories where lumber is more neatly or substantially made in its various manufactured forms, for at the mills of J. H. Cheetham and George Gasser they can be fully suited if anywhere, they being fully prepared to manufacture any style or quantity of sash, blinds, doors, frames, &c.

The wholesale notion house of Henry J. Rhoads & Co. presents to the visitor an appearance but seldom seen outside of metropolitan cities, the immense proportions of their rooms, and the variety and extent of their different wares having to be seen to be appreciated. Buyers should visit them.

W. P. Deppen, whose productions find market throughout almost the whole country, has an extensive brewery located in the city, and continues to sustain the reputation of the superiority of Reading lager beer.

At George W. Hughes' and Isaac W. Keim's extensive wine and liquor ware-rooms, a large assortment of pure wines and liquors can be purchased by landlords and others, at prices that defy competition.

Among the many first-class hotels that Reading can boast of is the Mansion House, George B. Spayd, proprietor, which still maintains the high character for which it has been noted for so many years.

The Berks County House, F. P. Esterly, proprietor, is one of the most widely known and popular hotels in the city.

The Union House, J. G. Ehst, proprietor, is also deservedly prominent among the hotels of the city.

There is nothing more worthy of the laudable pride of the people of Reading than the newspapers published in the city.

There being five well supported and ably conducted daily, four English and one German, and four English and seven German weekly newspapers. The Daily Eagle, a newsy afternoon paper, is published by J. G. Hawley. It has a large circulation, and receiving as it does the latest telegraphic news, and being ably edited by talented writers in every department, is one of the features of the city. Connected with the establishment are electrotyping, stereotyping, wood-engraving and book binding departments.

The Daily Times and Dispatch, published by J. Knabb & Co., a wide-awake morning paper, is the oldest daily published in the city, and one of the most widely circulated of any inland daily in the State. It contains all the latest news of the day, receiving the dispatches of the Associated Press, and having attached to it a corps of editors of superior literary attainments, is deservedly popular. The Times job printing establishment turns out job work of all descriptions. The Berks and Schuylkill Journal, published by the same firm, is a first-class family newspaper.

W. Rosenthal, the publisher and proprietor of the Reading Post, the only German daily published in Berks County, also issues from his office the Banner Von Berks, a family weekly. The Biene, a Sunday paper, and Die Deutsche Eiche, a weekly literary paper, the organ of the German Order of Harugari, are all attractive German papers with large subscription lists.

The Reading News, whose proprietor, W. S. Ritter, is a veteran publisher, is an ably conducted afternoon paper, already firmly established in public favor.

The Reading Alder, the oldest German newspaper in the United States, and the Weekly News are also published by Mr. Ritter.

Buckwalter & Dampman, publishers of the Daily and Weekly Herald, have, through their enterprise and energy, gained for their publications large circulations which through their zeal are rapidly increasing.

SHAMOKIN, Northumberland County,

A flourishing town on the Mahanoy & Shamokin Branch of the P. & R. R. R., 132½ miles from Philadelphia, and on the Northern Central Railroad 66 miles from Harrisburg. It is an old town, the first railroad being located here in 1837; but there was little or no advance made until about fifteen years back, since which time it has improved greatly, and now has a population of about 9,000. It was incorporated as a borough in 1863, and is now well supplied with both gas and water. The coal mines, from which its chief support is derived, a number of which are located within the limits of the town, and the railroads, the depots of which are situated in the centre of the borough, give it a very busy appearance. There is a large foundry and machine shop in the place. The Shamokin Iron Works, John Mullen, proprietor, which does an extensive business, and has facilities for the manufacture of all kinds of machinery, castings, &c. There are also thirteen churches, three good hotels, a bank, three live weekly newspapers, &c.

SHENANDOAH, Schuylkill County,

On the Shenandoah Branch of the P. & R. R. R., and is, via Frackville, 14 miles from Pottsville. The Mahanoy Division of the Lehigh Valley Railroad also passes through the town, its distance from Mauch Chunk being 18 miles. It is at the foot of Mahanoy Mountain, which originally formed the northwestern boundary of Schuylkill County, and is a new settlement, it being laid out in 1860, previous to which time there was only one house, a tavern stand, which is still standing. It was incorporated as a borough in 1866, and now has a population of about 12,000. The principal business is coal mining, it being surrounded with collieries, there being a number located in and around the town. It has gas and water furnished by incorporated companies. The town contains eleven churches, a foundry and machine shop and two ably conducted weeklies, the Mining Herald and the Sunday Morning News.

SOUTH BETHLEHEM, Northampton County,

Is located on the south bank of the Lehigh river, also on the L. V. R. R. and N. P. Branch of P. & R. R. R., 54 miles from Philadelphia and 12 miles from Easton, the county seat. South Bethlehem, with its surroundings, has a population of between 6,000 and 7,000. The Lehigh University, with an endowment from Asa Packer, for it and its library, of about $2,000,000, is located here. The Bethlehem Iron Co., employing from 2,500 to 3,000 hands, together with two brass foundries, zinc works, boiler works, planing mill, shovel and platform gear works constitute the leading manufacturies of South Bethlehem. There are also here six churches, a number of hotels, among which the Pacific House, T. F. Marsteller, proprietor, takes the lead. One bank, one brewery, and one weekly newspaper, called the South Bethlehem Star, Grim & Harlachner, proprietors, whose large subscription and advertising list show their efforts have been duly appreciated.

TOWER CITY, Schuylkill County,

This is a village at the foot of Broad Mountain, near the head of the fertile Williams Valley. It is reached via the Lebanon and Tremont Branch of the P. & R. R. R. to Tower City Station, on the Broad Mountain, thence by stage to the village about two miles distant. It is distant from Lebanon 44 miles, and depends for its prosperity upon coal mining. The first house in Tower City was built in 1869. The population now is about 1,000. Unlike other towns in the coal region business is not overdone. There are all the evidences of advanced enlightenment, churches, schools, hotels, &c. Among the latter special mention should be made of the Tower City House.

TREMONT, Schuylkill County,

Is situated on the Lebanon and Tremont Branch of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, 7 miles from Pinegrove, 35 from Pottsville, by rail, and 48 from Harrisburg. It was settled in 1816 or 1817, by Henry Zimmerman. The first buildings of any consequence were erected in 1844, and in 1848 the post office was established, John B. Ziebach being first postmaster. Tremont was incorporated in 1866. In the immediate vicinity are located extensive mining operations, which necessitate the use of steam engines, mining pumps, coal breakers, etc. These interests are fully provided for by the extensive establishments of Adam Ferg, proprietor of the Donaldson Iron Works, and C. W. Brower, proprietor of the Tremont Iron Works. These establishments are under the management of thoroughly reliable and practical gentlemen, and the work turned out is not surpassed by any in the country. Tremont has a population at present of about 2,000.

WILLIAMSPORT,

The county seat of Lycoming County, is the northern terminus of the Catawissa Branch of the P. & R. R. R., 199 miles from Philadelphia, and, on the line of the Philadelphia & Erie Railroad, 95 miles from Harrisburg, and on the Northern Central Railway, 78 miles from Elmira. The West Branch Canal also runs through the city. It is delightfully situated on the West Branch of the Susquehanna River, and is a beautiful and flourishing place, regularly laid out in squares and possesses rare attractions. The city has great claims to architectural beauty, containing many public and private buildings that are not surpassed by those of any inland city in the State. It is the centre of an immense lumbering trade, the manufacture of which forms its chief business, there being manufactured here everything from match sticks to immense beams and girders, while the numerous planing mills are always ready to fill orders for any and all kinds of finished lumber. Saw and planing mills line the banks of the river for miles above and below the city, the busy hum of the machinery giving evidence of its thrift and manufacturing importance. It has, within the last few years, grown very rapidly, and contains a population at present of about 20,000. The principal streets are wide and level, affording delightful drives. It has an effective paid fire department, the inflammable nature of the wood rendering it necessary to use extra precaution in this direction. The city was incorporated in 1866.

Although it were almost vain to attempt to particularize individual enterprise, we cannot but note a few of the most prominent in the array of energetic and reliable firms of the city.

Among the lumber firms of the city we would commend the old and favorably known firm of John A. Otto's Sons, at whose Liberty Saw and Planing Mills they manufacture their well known mellow pine lumber, so favorably spoken of by builders in all sections of the country. This firm has also engaged in the manufacture of hard and soft wood chamber suits, which, from quality and style, are fast gaining a front rank in public favor.

The machine works and foundry of the Valley Iron Works, W. P. Riley, superintendent, whose steam engines, boilers, self-closing patent canal bridges, &c., are so favorably known that commendation here is unnecessary.

Williams & Forseman are recognized as one of the leading lumber firms of the country, as their large and increasing business amply testifies. A. Merriam & Sons, who manufacture lumber of all kinds, together with laths and pickets, are widely known as being among the foremost lumber manufacturers, and Charles Scheffel, largely engaged in the same business, is widely known as a thorough business man.

Williamsport can boast of having as good hotels as any city in the State, foremost among which are the new and elegant Porter House, (late the Crawford House,) J. F. Porter, proprietor, the City Hotel, O. P. Foreman, proprietor, the most centrally located in the city, and the popular Hepburn House, D. Updegraff, proprietor. An institution in which the citizens feel a commendable pride is the Dickinson Seminary, established in 1847. Beautifully located, with large and commodious buildings, and an able faculty of experienced instructors, it takes a prominent position among the leading educational establishments of the country. The lovers of the beautiful can gratify their tastes by a visit to the nurseries of the Evenden Bros., whose skill in floriculture is unexcelled. The West Branch Boiler Works of E. W. Keeler, is one of the leading industrial establishments of the city, and the boilers, stacks, tanks, &c., manufactured by them are shipped to all sections of the country. Those who want to hire a good and nobby team can always suit themselves at the liveries of A. H. Hagerman or D. R. P. Rissel, whose turnouts are first-class. The Daily Gazette and Bulletin, a live journal with a large circulation through, and the recognized authority of, the Pennsylvania lumber region, has weathered the storms, while many have lived their short lives only to go down, and is now one of the newest and most successful inland papers in the State. Daily and Weekly Sun and Banner, published by the Sun and Banner Publishing Co., have won for themselves a reputation as being most reliable and wide-awake journals and enjoy large patronage. The Lycoming Chronicle, Sunday Breakfast Table, Star of Hope, the Weekly Gazette and Bulletin and National Standard, English weeklies, and the Susquehanna Zeitung and the West Branch Beobachter, German weeklies, are newspapers enjoying extended circulations throughout the State, and are journals that are a credit to the city in which they are published.

BETHLEHEM, Northampton County,

Is located on the north bank of the Lehigh river, 12 miles from Easton, the county seat, and 54 miles from Philadelphia. It was settled by the Moravians in 1741, and incorporated as a borough in 1844. The L. & S. Division and the L. & L. Branch (of the same division) of the C. R. R. of N. J. are the railroad facilities in Bethlehem proper. The principal manufacturing interests are located in South Bethlehem, which lies just opposite on the other side of the river, the two places being connected by two substantial bridges. The population of Bethlehem and its surroundings is between 8,000 and 9,000. Where so many enterprising firms are engaged in their different pursuits it is difficult to discriminate, but we cannot allow this opportunity to pass without calling attention especially to the following as among the most enterprising here. The Moravian Sun Hotel, F. H. Sponsler, propr, the Eagle Hotel and the Keystone House are the leading houses here. F. J. Engle, picture frames, W. F. Weider, leather and findings, L. R. Myers, attorney at law. There is one daily, the Bethlehem Daily Times, Godshalk & Weaver, proprs, and four weekly newspapers published here, all of which are largely patronized.
